Utility Assessment Up over $1 Million

Hancock County's public utility assessment is up almost a quarter million dollars for 1960, the bulk of the hike being attributable to United Gas Corp. and Tennessee Gas Pipeline Co. expansions in Beat 1.

Assessor George Heitzman this week announced the new assessment figure at $3,513,913. This is a hike of $1,217,024 over the $2,296,889 figure for 1959.

Tennessee Gas contributed the largest single gain, rising from $52,790 to $1,143,810 with its new compressor station and pipeline installation, particularly in Analeis. This includes 10 new employees.

United Gas jumped from $1,000,000 to $594,270.

Other new assessments show Mississippi Power Co., $618,947, a hike of $10,728; Louisville and Nashville Railroad Co., $542,081, a hike of $16,555, mostly because of tracks being removed South of Ball Telephone Co., which against $438,682 last year, now has no change.

Rural Telephone Expansion Seen

Installation of telephones in the northern part of Hancock County is expected to commence as soon as financing of the one-half to three-quarter million dollar capital outlay involved can be arranged, the board of supervisors was told Monday.

J. C. Dabney, Gulfport group manager for Southern Bell Telephone Co., appeared at the request of the supervisors who have been concerned about the company's plans to extend service into the north and northwest handle, much of which is without this facility.

The phone executive indicated that the north county service will be out of the Pass Christian exchange which will enable consumers to talk without toll charges to both Bay St. Louis and Gulfport. He asserted that the firm does plan to serve this area but is not in a position to set the date because of the money. However, it should materialize in a minimum length of time, he added.

Dabney cited the progress since he came here in 1946 when service was confined to the Bay St. Louis and Waveland areas and a small part in Logtown. Since then it has been extended to Clermont Harbor, Lakeshore and Pearl River. There was no phone north of the cattle guard on the Kiln Road, he recalled. Dial service has been

'Unpledged' Trail Third

Senator John Fitzgerald Kennedy carried Hancock County by nearly a 3-1 margin over his Republican opponent for the presidency, Richard M. Nixon, on the basis of unofficial returns from 23 of the county's 25 precincts late Wednesday.

While Hancock County and the nation at large gave the Massachusetts senator the nod in his initial bid for the presidency, Mississippi's eight electoral votes went to the Democratic unpledged ranks who ran weak third here.

Total to date give Kennedy 4,069 against 700 for Nixon and 421 for the unpledged electors.

Circuit Clerk Lamar Otis said the Catohoula box had not been returned to his office when he closed up at noon Wednesday and the Caesar box had been returned locked so neither precinct could be tabulated until the election commissioners meet this morning to make the official canvass.

Logtown, the first precinct to report, gave Republican Nixon a quick but short-lived lead in the county, voting 21 for Nixon, 17 for Kennedy and 7 unpledged. Clermont Harbor was the only other precinct to go Republican.

The unpledged ticket, spearheaded by Gov. Ross Barnett who carried the county in the second gubernatorial primary last year, captured only one precinct—Gainesville. It went 29 for the unpledged with three votes each for Nixon and Kennedy.

The northern part of the county went strongly for Kennedy and even in Beat 5 where many observers felt Nixon had his best chance, the young Democrat ran easily out in front, taking the beat 1,352 to 580 for Nixon and 254 for the unpledged.

The Kennedy sentiment was heavy in Bay St. Louis, the residential North Bay precinct giving him the only close margin—66 to 57. Percentage-wise, Nixon probably fared best in Waveland, that box going 178 for Kennedy, 109 for Nixon and 72 unpledged. That unpledged vote, incidentally, was the biggest piled up anywhere in the county by that movement.

Records show that Hancock has voted in the Democratic column for well over a century with one exception. That was four years ago when Dwight D. Eisenhower sought a second term in the White House.

In that contest the Lilywhite Republican electors polled 1,328 votes and the Black and Tan Republican electors got 93 to the Democrats' 1,179 and 74 for the States' Rights Party. It was one of four Mississippi counties rebelling against Adlai Stevenson

Dr. Dennis Magee was appointed county health officer at a meeting of the board of supervisors Monday. He will serve both Hancock and Pearl River Counties and will live in Pico-yuna, not in a position to set the date because of the money. However, it should materialize in a minimum length of time, he added.

Dr. Magee is scheduled to arrive Dec. 1. He is a graduate of the University Medical School in Jackson and interned at the Baptist Hospital at Jackson and has been in private practice since then.

Motion was by Charles A. Russ seconded by Charles Lavignehouse. Vote was unanimous after an official of the state health department said the Pearl River County Board had already approved the appointment.

Representative Clarence Ledner was appointed county civil defense director to fill the vacancy created by the appointment of Ken Whitfield as district director. Ledner, who attended the meeting, accepted the assignment.

Hancock General Hospital Administrator Tom Logue raised the question of who is to pay for treatment of prisoners. He said he thought the county was doing

G.A. Courrage Elected to School Board

Gordon A. Courrage of Lakeshore was elected by a 141 to 75 vote Tuesday as the Beat 5 member of the county board of education.

He defeated Leonard Ladrer of Clermont Harbor in the race to succeed Mrs. C. C. McDonald. She was ineligible for reelection because of residence in Bay St. Louis due to a change in the state law on the matter.

Courrage, for some years a member of the county board of education under a prior statute, is currently employed with the Louisville and Nashville Railroad as a clerk-operator at the Bay St. Louis station.

Only voters in Clermont Harbor and Lakeshore were eligible to vote in the school board election. The breakdown was Lakeshore: Courrage 96, Ladrer 26, Clermont Harbor: Courrage 45, Ladrer 49.

Scharffs Celebrate Jitney Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Scharff this week are celebrating their 11th year in association with the jitney jungle organization of jockey merchants. Although the Scharffs have been food merchants in Bay St. Louis for a much longer time, this is the first year when, according to Scharff, they try to express their gratitude to Bay-Waveland residents by having special inducements for their customers to visit their store.

Amendments Pass Easily In County

Hancock County voters Tuesday decisively approved five amendments to the state constitution, incomplete returns showed Wednesday.

The first amendment, concerned with changing the manner in which jurors are selected, was approved by a vote of 1,578 to 577. The second, changing the working on taxing of property, was passed 1,525 to 668. A vote of 1,619 for and 519 against was cast for the third amendment dealing with the limit set upon the bonded indebtedness of the state and its agencies. The fourth, rewording the constitution giving the legislature power to use its discretion in providing for the maintenance and establishment of free public schools, was approved 1,390 to 797.

The amendment requiring that in order to be eligible to vote one must be of "good moral character", the fifth on the ballot, was approved 1,241 to 917.

Garza Wins Waveland Council Seat

John A. Garza sr. won the 1st Ward seat on Waveland's board of aldermen Tuesday by a 17 to 6 vote.

He was opposed in the race by Horace Ruhr, son of William Ruhr who held the office until his death in September.

Garza is a former alderman from the ward having been first elected to the office in 1942. He served two terms. The alderman elect is a retired real estate man and has lived in Waveland 25 years.

Two men were arrested about noon Sunday in a stolen 1957 Oldsmobile near Coast Electric Power Association building after they had been reported acting suspiciously by association employees. Deputy Sheriffs Roland Lafontaine and James Ledner made the arrests.

One gave his name as Marvin Evans of Charleston, W. Va., but after questioning admitted he was Donald Lantz, 29, no known address, and last worked for a circus in California. He produced a driver's license issued in the name of Marvin Miller Evans and other identification. Price said, but after questioning admitted he was Lantz and that the car and wallet had been

Miss Compretta Wed To Airman John Sotak

Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic church was the scene of the wedding at a nuptial mass at 11 a.m. Saturday of Miss Frances Norma Compretta and Airman John Sotak.

The altar was banked with halcyon arrangements of white gladioli against a background of palms. The Rev. Michael Kelly officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Joseph Compretta of Bay St. Louis and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John J. Sotak of Whiting, Ind.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of white tulle and tulle, featuring a full skirt and fitted bodice which was buttoned down the back. The ruffled neckline was outlined with gold beads and a long, heavy train fell from a tiny train. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid.

Miss Katherine Compretta, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were the Misses Kathleen Henkle and Mary Frances Lohmeyer with Miss Frances Compretta, cousin of the bride, as junior bridesmaid.

The attendants were in street-length dresses of green velvet with full skirts, ruffled necklines and cap sleeves. Their hair was also worn of great volume and they carried bouquets of white roses.

Kathy Nantz was best man with a sea theme and Donald Compretta as groomsmen. Officiating were Adam D. Larnoy of Long Beach and Frank La Rosa of Gulfport.

A procession of traditional wedding music was provided by the musical group of the church, consisting of Walter Jones and Robert Maurer, pianists.

Federated Foolishness

Housewives across the land who have trouble balancing the family budget can take scant comfort in the fact that the Federal Government is also having similar budget problems. Meeting payments on a car, reducing the mortgage on the family home, buying a new range, meeting taxes or paying the doctor, are all difficult for the multiplied millions of American homemakers.

Even the youngest and most dewy-eyed bride knows that if she and her husband continually spend more than they make, they are on their way to bankruptcy. So she and her husband face the important task of making financial ends meet while putting something aside for their future.

The Federal Government gives the family a frightening example in financial affairs. During the last thirty years, since 1931, federal expenditures have exceeded income in twenty-four annual deficits. Since 1951, the Federal Government has balanced its budget only twice. And in 1959, its income reached $66 billion while it spent more than $80 billion.

When a family or a government spends more than it takes in, the accumulated deficit becomes a form of debt. Almost beyond the reach of the human mind, our national debt has reached an all-time high of $286 billion. And there seems to be little hope for any significant reduction. Indeed, our public servants show no desire to even discuss their country's indebtedness. It is just taken for granted among those who would shift the burden to posterity.

Costing us more than we care to admit, the national debt not only eats away at our solvency but also has an adverse effect on our moral fibre. Just meeting the interest payments alone saps the nation's financial strength. Since 1952, the paying of interest on the public debt has been the second largest item every year in the federal budget, surpassed only by military expenditures. Last year, this gigantic item reached the record sum of nine billion two hundred million dollars.

Only an aroused public opinion -- the individual and collective rebellion of tax-paying Americans on Main Street and on Wall Street, in the home and in the marketplace -- can put an end to this nation's determination to commit financial suicide. Together, we must restore frugality and thrift as historic American traditions. The people and their government will live within their incomes or perish.

LOYAL DEMOCRATS - Sheriff Gerald V. Price, Tax Assessor George Hartzmann and Burton Johnson give the V for victory sign as Democrats forged ahead Tuesday night. From left in Nellus are Joseph V. Colson, Price, Hartzmann, Johnson, Earl Ramond and Circuit Clerk Lamar Olin.

GET OUT AND VOTE - Area Boy and Girl Scouts paraded Saturday afternoon in an effort to get citizens to vote.

Eastland Breezes In

Democratic Sen. James O. Eastland was elected over Republican aspirant Joe A. Moore, 59 to 413 on the basis of unofficial returns from 23 of Hancock County's 25 precincts.

The senator received his biggest vote in Beat 5 where Moore was defeated 1,573 to 372.

The votes in other beats were: Beat 1, Eastland, 164, Moore, 24; Beat 2, Eastland, 170, Moore, 0; Beat 3, Eastland, 262, Moore, 0; and Beat 4, Eastland, 230, Moore, 17.

Sixth District Rep. William M. Colmer of Pascagoula and Second District State Supreme Court Judge R. Olney Arrington of Hazlehurst, were unopposed in the election.

Votes for Rep. Colmer were as follows: Beat 1, 171; Beat 2, 69; Beat 3, 195; Beat 4, 217; and Beat 5, 1,174. Judge Arrington received votes as follows: Beat 1, 148; Beat 2, 82; Beat 3, 159; Beat 4, 165 and Beat 5, 1079.

who carried the support of then Gov. James P. Coleman.

County Democratic Campaign Chairman Russell Elliott expressed deep appreciation to the voters for their support of the Kennedy-Johnson ticket and gave special credit to its promotion by J. another improvement plus the removal of the toll charge to Pass Christian with no increase in rate, he continued, citing improvements over the last 14 years.

The company proposes to serve now the entire north section of Hancock and Harrison Counties, perhaps simultaneously, but Dabney warned about the cost, the fact that demand must justify the expenditure to make it economically feasible. "If we build it will be on the faith that these counties will grow and compensate for the expense," he mentioned that three exchanges may be necessary to handle the facilities.

Board President R. G. Hubbard Jr. observed that construction of the new Rt. 603 into U. S. 90 should bring people here "by the flock." He cited the profit to the county because many who would tend to build at least summer camps here are deterred because there is no telephone to keep them in touch with things at home.

Rep. Clarence Ladner who sat in on the session noted he had introduced a bill at the last session of the legislature calling for an agency patterned after the Rural Electrification Administration to finance telephone service in rural areas.

Ed and Warren Carver have another year to serve. Within 10 days of Monday's meeting the new board will elect a president and vice president from board members to replace retiring President Dantagnan and the vice president, Mr. Johnson.

Mrs. Green urges all members who have not already done so to mail in their ballots as soon as possible.

Remedial Reading Plan Produces Results

A reading program, which last year resulted in an average grade level gain of eight months for elementary pupils at Hancock North Central School, is now in progress in the high school division there under the direction of Mrs. G. S. Kennedy, guidance counselor for the county school system.

She is using the Science Research Associates reading laboratory and every child in grades seven through 12 is participating. The lab facilities were donated to the school by the Parent-Teacher Assn. A total of 328 pupils are involved.

As the county system moved toward coverage of all grades under the guidance program, Mrs. Kennedy is going to the Gulfview and Logtown Schools twice a week to give intelligence tests to the third and seventh grades at both places. Achievement tests have been administered for the fifth, sixth and seventh grades at Gulfview and will be given later at Logtown.

The new county-wide program also calls for individual testing and securing data on occupational levels.

When the remedial reading program was conducted last spring, all those participating showed progress of from two months to one year and two months beyond what normally would be expected for the same school period.

A test administered by Mrs. Kennedy at the onset showed from 40 to 80 per cent of the children in the first through the 12th grade were reading below the grade level. Working in conjunction with the Scott, Foreman Co. reading plan at Lumberton, the remedial program was put in effect.

All students were required to read at least four books. Many read 10 to 12 books and several read 25 or 30. Some pupils reported that their parents and older brothers and sisters also read the books they had taken home.

A variant of the same reading test, the California Achievement-Reading, was given the first week in May which revealed all pupils had exceeded the normal anticipated progress in reading.

The most significant gain was among seventh grade girls who improved their reading level the equivalent of one grade and six months. Eighth grade girls were up a full grade and sixth grade girls gained nine months. Other gains were seventh grade boys and fifth grade girls, up eight months; sixth and eighth grade boys, six months; fourth grade boys and girls, five months.

The reading laboratory donated by the P-TA consists of reading material graded from the third grade level through the second year college level with material of interest of junior and senior high school students. Each pupil is tested to determine his level and then has a workbook in which he completes assignments using material of his level and advancing in the reading level as his progress indicates.

with a request from the Knights of Columbus for an advertisement in its 50th anniversary celebration booklet after Favre advised it was not on the list of organizations approved for advertising by statute and the board had to determine if it would receive full value for the money spent. Hubbard cautioned it would open the way for requests from other organizations and the matter was dropped. Abuses of funds spent on advertising in the past and warnings for the auditor were recalled.

Henry R. Norman of Brown and Root, Houston, Tex., industrial engineers, appeared in response to the board's query for an industrial survey and was invited to submit a proposition.

In other action Sheriff Price was authorized to grant Charlie Mitchell, Negro, time off his prison sentence for good behavior.

The board declined to go along with the charge, noting he had brought before the board the delivery problem he had with the firm and had been authorized to make emergency purchases elsewhere.

Hubbard promptly objected to the charge, noting he had brought before the board the delivery problem he had with the firm and had been authorized to make emergency purchases elsewhere.

Otherwise, he and Favre noted, the county had to pay for its workmen standing idle waiting for cement to arrive when it was needed.

Foolish, We Think

For some years now the Federal Communications Commission has had applications from two corporations to establish a TV station in the Biloxi area. So far it has not acted on the applications whether because of technical electronic reasons or not this paper does not know. (No TV channel can be assigned practically within the range of another station using the same channel.)

It seems logical that there would be a TV outlet on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, particularly as one of the major TV chains is difficult to pick up in this area. As individuals we think most of us would advocate the FCC awarding a channel to one of the two applicants, particularly now that the football season is on and the "missing chain" is the one that carries the Saturday collegiate games.

Both the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of Waveland and the Commission Council of Bay St. Louis, plus the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club, have recently urged the FCC to allot a channel to one of the applicants. We think the municipalities and Rotary (Bay St. Louis variety) were foolish to do so.

This editor believes that the establishment of such a TV station might economically hurt the Bay-Waveland area and its merchants, including this paper, because it will furnish another advertising media to solicit the business of Hancock County's away from Hancock County. We think it best for Bay St. Louis, Waveland and their citizens for our retail business to stay here. Even now, because of someone's inactivity in the past, mail to the county's major school, North Central, should be addressed to Pass Christian.

Let's quit losing business and opportunities for our citizens.

Those Fine Kids

In the October 29, issue of the Echo this editor criticized the use of Halloween and children for the raising of funds for the Children's Rural Overseas Program, an organization supplanted in Hancock County this year by UNICEF, an opinion better and more succinctly expressed by another editor whose view is printed this week under "Opinions of Others."

Nevertheless, the Echo wants to congratulate the children of this area for their real contribution, in terms of good citizenship as well as time and effort, in helping UNICEF raise funds here. The organization is basically a good one and the kids really did a fine job under the direction of Mrs. Sam Whitfield, county chairman for the drive. There was also a successful drive among our colored citizens sparked by the Valena C. Jones Methodist Church with Mrs. C. F. Jackson as chairman.

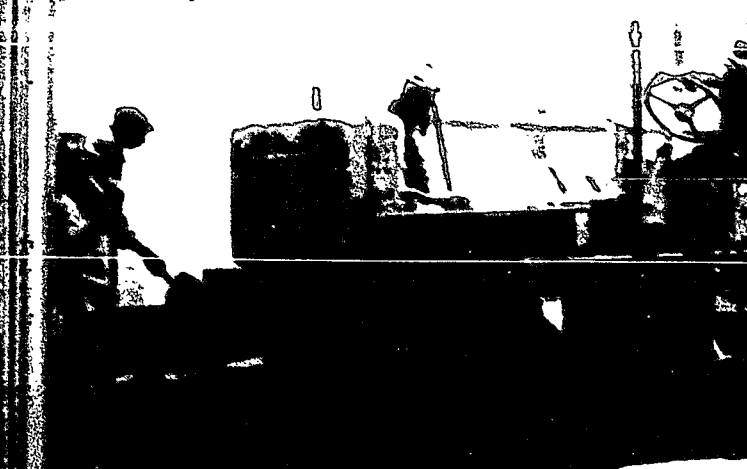

Both President Elect John Kennedy and his opponent of Tuesday, Vice President Richard Nixon, have strongly endorsed the UNICEF movement, and certainly the giving up of time, effort and money to a worthy cause never hurt anyone. While we still disagree on this use of Halloween, Mrs. Whitfield did arrange it so that the children, in essence, still had THEIR Halloween and perhaps they grew in terms of citizenship and responsibility.

To Mrs. Whitfield, the adults who assisted her and primarily to those fine kids who brought the program to a successful conclusion, OUR CONGRATULATIONS.

The Echo opposed, for reasons it thought sufficient, the Unpledged Electors advocated by Gov. Ross Barnett. Close as the election turned out, we're not now sure but what our governor had a good idea if only the voters in a few more states had followed Mississippi's electorate.

Views of Others.....

UNICEF's 'Trick'

It was good, we think, that someone questioned the local policy among some churches of using Halloween's trick-or-treat custom as a vehicle for collecting funds for UNICEF.

We have nothing against UNICEF itself, nor are we much interested in the battle of statistics concerning the percentage of funds

IT IS REAL? - Lots of Bay St. Louisians wondered that when they viewed the advertising gimmick placed in front of A and G Theater last weekend in connection with the movie then showing.

Seasonal Warning On Safety Given

With the advent of cold weather and the hunting season, caution on two fronts was urged this week by Dr. R. L. McMillen, who is providing medical service for the County Health Department until a new health officer is named.

He cited a notice from the State Board of Health warning of home fire hazards with the temperatures dropping. Special precautions must be taken in homes with space heaters, open fireplaces or heating stoves, he said. Small children should not be left alone near and unattended elderly people, particularly those with partial or total disabilities should be watched.

Concern of the ages season on wild life was voiced in the voice of a coroner's inquest held within the week. Firearm accidents and deaths are almost evenly divided between those which happen in and around the home and those which occur abroad. Dr. McMillen noted that the latter are hunting accidents and the great number involve young people.

Nov. 9, 1945—James Martin of St. Stanislaus was elected president of the Coast Union of Solidarity of the Blessed Virgin Mary when it reorganized two weeks ago, having been disbanded for two years because of the war affecting transportation.

25 YEARS AGO

Nov. 8, 1935—Among the projects for Hancock County receiving approval for PWA funds are the new county jail, $23,000, ramping the sealwall, $61,000, and $23,000 for renovation of the Kiln Consolidated School building. The colored school of Bay St. Louis, Valena C. Jones High, will receive some $16,000.

Price Ordered

The Mississippi Milk Commission this week fixed the minimum price to be paid dairymen for whole milk in the Gulf Coast territory as $6, effective Dec. 1, as the new regulatory body begins to function.

STUDENT PRINTS IN PRODUCTION - Staff of Bay High School's newspaper, the Student Prints, watched Sea Coast Echo chief pressman Tom Monti, right, as he prepares this year's first edition for printing. The pupils were accompanied on their trip to see how the paper is printed after they get everything ready by the advisor, Mrs. Norman Hall.

New Loans Available to Farmers

Farmers who have regular off-farm employment, if otherwise eligible, may obtain farm operating and development loans from the Farmers Home Administration under a new regulation which went into effect Oct. 1, according to Max H. Stone, county FHA supervisor.

Previously, except in rural development counties, a farmer had to spend most of his time farming in order to qualify for a loan.

Experience gained in rural development counties has shown that many farmers who are regularly employed off the farm can profitably use FHA credit facilities to increase the farm portions of their total incomes, Stone noted. The regulation which had limited credit assistance to farmers who spent most of their time farming prevented some from obtaining the maximum income from their farms and from taking advantage of opportunities for industrial and other off-farm employment, he said.

Other eligibility requirements must have sufficient farm experience to carry on sound farm operations, must need credit and be unable to obtain financial assistance from other sources. As in the past, credit will be extended only to operators of farms that are family type or small. No loan will be made unless a plan for the coming year's farming operations show that income on the farm and other sources will be large enough to enable the farm family to have a reasonable standard of living pay debts, and have an adequate reserve for emergencies.

The Farmers Home Administration office serving Hancock County is on Necaise Avenue in the Agricultural Center Building.

'61 Ford Galaxie Club Victoria with Thunderbird styling and real-time drive-in banking but can't match.

The one '61 car built to back up a long-term warranty

Ford led the way with the one car beautifully built to take care of itself . . . and you

On September 29, Ford Dealers set an industry trend — were first to extend their 1961 car warranty from the conventional 4,000 miles or 3 months to 12,000 miles or one full year, whichever comes first.

Why? Because Ford built the car to support such confidence. Ford for 1961 is the car beautifully built to take care of itself!

The '61 Ford was designed and built to the more exacting standards necessary to offer an extended warranty. Ask to see this warranty at your dealer's.

It is significant that Ford has so many take-care-of-itself features not found in other cars, regardless of price. These new Ford features are a triumph of exhaustive research, fine engineering, and quality construction that give you the most reliable Ford ever built. Drive a '61 Ford now.

HERE'S HOW THE '61 FORD TAKES CARE OF ITSELF

Lubricates itself—You'll normally go 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications. Then a quick, inexpensive Ford Dealer lube job (which costs about $4.00*) will get you set for another 30,000 miles.

Cleans its own oil—You'll go 4,000 miles between oil changes with Ford's Full-Flow oil filter.

Adjusts its own brakes—New Truck
Size brakes adjust themselves automatically for the life of the lining.

Guards its own muffler—Ford mufflers are double-wrapped and aluminized—normally will last three times as long as ordinary mufflers.
Protects its own body—All vital underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion, even to galvanizing the body panels
beneath the doors.

Takes care of its own finish—New Diamond Lustre Finish never needs wax.

Shoulda Gone Fishin' North Central Plans Big Friday

BY EDDIE ENGELHORN

Strong west and northwest winds caused a temporary break in excellent fall fishing during the weekend but some good catches were made. Generally speaking fishing was spotty during the week, the anglers reporting the fish were striking real early in the morning while others saying they were biting real late. Personally I prefer to fish just after the crest of the tide and tried it Saturday at under the lights of the highway bridge but a strong northwest wind came up and spoiled everything. We went home with one white cat but managed to salvage plenty of bait shrimp to try along with it.

We heard some successful Louisiana anglers talking excitedly about a new method of trolling for speckled trout, using a live hump with a sinker and a swivel instead of a lure - a rig that has been used by many Hancock County fishermen for as long as we can remember.

Wild geese are still available in good numbers and duck hunters are priming their guns for the opening of the season Nov. 19. Should a good season be had it will be a relief to the past few weeks of duck hunting which will be hard to find on opening day.

Mitchells Make A Haul

Invertebrate sportsman A. C. (Mitch) Mitchell was full of energy Wednesday morning. Saturday Marjorie and daughter Janell (Mrs. Joseph Kern) tried the Jordan with their fly rods and almost got the nit of green trout along with quite a few perch. They were visiting with their sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Hebert who have a home in River Gardens on the Jordan. The Heberts were celebrating their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lindstrom of New Orleans. Saturday Marjorie and the Ray Stevens of River Gardens and Piquette went to the marshes and got a box full of trout. They tried the same spot Sunday with Mitch along - nothing - but Mitch says he and Wayne Alliston have been getting their share of trout in the lower and upper swamp. (Just another way of saying Mitch is fixing to tell us where they go).

With the season open on geese, squirrel and so forth and the duck season opening a word of caution seems timely. A lad was seriously injured near Lyman about a week ago because of accidental discharge of a gun and a couple of months ago a Gulfport youth was killed in a hunting accident. The first rule of gun handling is to treat every gun though it is loaded and had a hair trigger and that goes for .22s and air rifles.

Complaint Reported

An article in a Gulfport paper reports on illegal netting of fish in Hancock County. We have had several complaints of commercial fishermen netting fish out from around the shell pile in front of the marican Legion Home and other places during the early hours of the morning before daylight but haven't been able to find who is doing it. We are now enforcing the law against illegal netting. Seems like it would be the Marine Conservation Commission.

Oswald Villere, Buddy Dufour and Bill Favre each got the limit of geese opening day, R. J. LeDuc and Mesdames George H.aney and Howard Evans of New Orleans spent Saturday and Sunday on a fishing trip in Ponsicola and Gulf Shores. Caught very few fish but had a wonderful time and are looking forward to another trip soon.

Willie, Wilford and Grace and the Boudage family were seen fishing last week and got more than 50 specks.

Carmel Lentant, Margie Beulah and Frank Peterson got about 20 as did Isobel Villere and Mrs. Henry Saller.

It Was A Great Day

We had a lot of fun covering the election returns at the Courthouse for United Press International and managed to get the three candidates' chairmen, Joe Colson, unemployed; Russell Elliott, Democrat, and Wilson Webb, GOP, to pose together for a picture watching the returns on television. However, there were a couple of sick people in the Echo office Wednesday morning including the business manager, Milton Corrier, who said "man, I'm moving to the Bahamas." But he wouldn't answer the question why Kennedy carried Nixon's home state.

Hawk Starting Line Up Lists 3 Necaises

The name of Necaise, practically synonymous with star basketball in Hancock County, is expected to continue in its prominent place this season.

The probable starting line-up for Hancock North Central's opening cage contest with McNell at 8:30 p.m. Friday includes three of the Necaise boys who are still in school.

Coach Billy Sills expects to use Calvin Shaw and Douglas Necaise at forward with Donald Necaise holding down the center spot. Undecided yet about the guards, he expects to select from Berlin Necaise, Donald Wayne LeDuc and McCoy Peterson.

Hawks Score, But Lose

North Central's gridders put over a touchdown but closed their season Friday night dropping a Gulf Coast Conference game to Long Beach 39-6 at Long Beach.

The Hawks showed improvement and warmed up to their task late in the final quarter marching 60 yards down field to the Bearcat one from where Douglas Necaise plunged over for the six-pointer. The kick was no good.

Although losing eight consecutive games in their first season of varsity football the Hawks show promise and Coach Truman Schultz hopes to have more practice time next year and possibly a gridiron with grandstands.

Long Beach scored twice in the first quarter, twice in the second and once each in the third and final quarters. A costly fumble started the Hawks' downfall. Long Beach kicked off to North Central but on the third play the Hawks fumbled and the Bearcats recovered on the North Central 18 to set up the first TD.

Two of the other tallies resulted from long passes while Bearcat fullback Terrell Bechtel electrified spectators with a brilliant 50-yard TD run for another.

North Central P-TA Hears of Industry Scene

J. Norton Haas Jr., chairman of the Bay St. Louis Jaycee industrial committee, outlined benefits which could accrue to Hancock County through industrial expansion in an address to the Parent-Teacher Assn. of Hancock North Central School last Thursday night.

Citing Mississippi's per capita income of $1,162 and Hancock County's of $700, he reviewed the natural resources here in comparison with those in booming Jackson County and declared there is much more offered in this county. He noted gas, oil, roads, timber, schools, the hospital and the like.

The effects on the individual of industrialization also were noted by Haas, who warned that it is not easy and the county would probably be called on for heavy initial outlays to provide necessary services, plus the creation of competition for local businesses. However, he said firmly the benefits derived from industry would far outweigh its disadvantages, in his opinion.

C. R. Knowlton, P-TA president, called on the membership to urge their representatives on the board of supervisors to support industrial expansion.
